Di Più Joins CPM Europe B.V.

ZAANDAM, THE NETHERLANDS – CPM Holdings Inc. (CPM), the world's leading supplier of processing equipment and technology to the biofuels, animal feed, oilseed, food, and compounding industries announces the acquisition of Di Più Macchine Impianti based in Breganze, Italy. Founded in 1996, Di Più is a leading supplier of mechanical and hydraulic briquetting machinery and replacement parts. Di Più will be organized under CPM Europe B.V. and will play an integral role in its Global Biomass Group.

“Combined, Di Più and CPMs’ greatest strength can be found in our core values and commitment to customer success.” remarked CPM Europe and Global Biomass Group Director Maarten Visser. “Our product technologies and market positions are complementary in every way.”

Former owners Andrea and Enrico Benetti will continue to serve Di Più in leadership and management roles and will guide integration and alignment efforts into the larger CPM organization. “By joining CPM, Di Più will accelerate its global growth and development.” says Enrico Benetti. “The entire organization is excited to begin this next journey and build upon the company’s legacy of great equipment, service and industry commitment.”

The acquisition significantly expands CPM’s agglomeration portfolio serving biomass, recycling and metal waste industries with sales, service, production and process technology centers in the Americas, Europe and Asia.
